Disable select page content

Disable select page content and Ctrl C to copy

We can select the page information, and then use Ctrl C to copy it. After , we can store the information in the pasteboard to other locations.

This feature can be enabled for a specific space. After enabled, you can forbid user in the group to select page content . After setting, the users in the group cannot to select page content.

You can exclude users from the user group who are prohibited for selecting page content and enable them to select page content.

For Annonymous users

You can prevent anonymous users to select page content.