- How was your Onboarding? by Svanna Trueman - Apr 18, 2018 (Important). It features an illustration of a person climbing a mountain. The post asks colleagues to review the onboarding process.
- ACME NPM Repository by Dan Waterman - Apr 18, 2018. It features an illustration of two brown bears with boxes. The post announces a new npm repository.
- New Colleague in July by Maren Cooper - Apr 18, 2018. It features a "HELLO" graphic. The post announces a new colleague joining in July.
- Mail Addresses for our Newsletter by Svanna Trueman - Apr 18, 2018. It features an illustration of an envelope and a mailbox. The post asks for newsletter mailing addresses.
- Agile Training in Mai by Zara Waterman - Apr 18, 2018. It features an illustration of a person pointing at a whiteboard with sticky notes. The post announces an agile training session.
- Mare Fruit in the Office by Maren Cooper - Apr 18, 2018. It features an illustration of various fruits. The post announces a fruit basket for the office.

The screenshot shows a Confluence page titled "ACME". On the left, there's a sidebar with sections for "DISCOVER" (All updates), "MY WORK" (Popular, Recently worked on, Recently visited, Saved for later), and "MY SPACES" (Administrator, LS, ACME, Lively Blogs). The main content area has two sections: "All updates" and "Blog Posts".
